FUN AND GAMES

» LAFFALOT SUMMER CAMPS
Old-fashioned backyard play keeps the kids running and, well, laughing a lot at Laffalot Summer Camps. Founder Pat Nymberg was a physical education teacher and coach at local schools before she started the week-long day camps, which now run at 17 sites around the region. Boys and girls attend separate sessions, but all play a variety of games including pillo pollo, flag tag, floor hockey, kickball, and scavenger hunts. » For locations and schedules during summer and spring break, check out www.laffalotcamps.com
